Dear Families,

We are looking forward to the Children returning this week. Please take notice of the dates we have in the diary for the final half term before the summer.

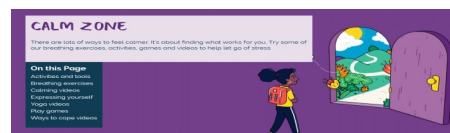

Please join us for the ‘Understanding Anxiety in your child’ workshop this week on Thursday. It starts at 2:15pm. Tea, coffee and biscuits will be available during this meeting led by Kerry, our MHST Support worker.

A reminder that breakfast club opens at 8:15am and is free for our children. This can be used every day or on occasions; no need to book.

Thank you for your continued support.
